FOR YOUR URGENT ATTENTION | reuniteservice.com.au

People who are elderly, disabled or severely ill (care recipients) can have complex medical and care needs. This information may impact upon the treatment provided to them in an emergency.

Reunite Carer Assist is designed to alert police, paramedics, and emergency medical staff that the card holder is a care recipient, and that all of their personal and medical information is recorded and stored for emergency use.

When a care recipient is registered with Reunite Carer Assist, express permission has been granted for this information to be shared with police, paramedics, and emergency medical staff.

IF YOU SEE THIS CARD:

OR THIS BRACELET:

It means you are attending to a CARE RECIPIENT. This person has medical or care needs specific to them that may affect treatment.

You will find these items in one of THREE places:

1. In the clear pocket of a wallet or purse.
2. Around the person's neck on a lanyard.
3. On the person's wrist.

UPON RECOGNITION OF A CARE RECIPIENT

CALL 1800 HELP NOW TO RECEIVE:

1. next of kin/carer information
2. a complete medical history
3. a physical description and photograph
4. an up to date report of all the cardholder's personal details
